Albuquerque Ambulance Service is hiring Paramedics!

AAS is a division of Presbyterian Healthcare Services and is the largest 911- provider of emergency and non-emergency ambulance service in the state of New Mexico! AAS provides an all ALS (Paramedic/EMT) service to the city of Albuquerque and surrounding areas, responding to over 100,000 + calls per year. AAS utilizes Horton ambulances and Stryker hydraulic stretchers to provide a safe and effective work environment. AAS has a full time highly involved Medical Director and also funds a research position at the University of New Mexico Medical School for continuous EMS research so we can provide the highest quality pre-hospital patient care possible. We invite you to join us in enhancing the health of the communities we serve!
